THE ASCENSION ACTS 1;6-11

The ascension in this context refers to the manner in which Jesus was taken to heaven.

After appearing for forty days, Christ was with apostles in Jerusalem. They asked him about the time that God would restore the Kingdom to Israel. Jesus made them realize that God Himself is the only one who knows the time and the season, not human beings. He told them that they would receive power after the Holy Spirit has come upon them, they will be witnesses to him in Jerusalem, Judea, Samaria and the uttermost part of the world. When he finished his address, he was taken up to heaven. As they gazed into heaven, two men stood by them in white robes testified saying that this same Jesus who is taken up into heaven will come in the same way as they saw him go into heaven.

Significance

Name _____

Date _____

1. It marked the promise of the Holy Spirit which was fulfilled during the Pentecost. The Holy Spirit gives guidance in evangelism.
2. The way Jesus ascended into heaven is the same way he will return. It opened the eyes of Christians as to the manner of Jesus' second coming.

EVALUATION

Describe the ascension of Jesus to heaven.

THE PENTECOST ACTS 2;1-41

The word Pentecost is derived from the Greek word for "fifty". It was another name for the Jewish Feast of weeks which took place exactly fifty days from the Passover Feast. The Apostles (120 people) prayed fervently for ten days and waited patiently for the Holy Spirit. When the apostles were praying, there came a sound as of a mighty rushing wind and it filled the whole house. Then, there appeared tongues as of fire which rested on each man's head and they all began to speak in different tongues as the spirit gave them utterance. That sound attracted a great multitude that were in festive mood.

Significance of the Pentecost

1. Christians today should help to continue in spreading the gospel to every part of the world.
2. The Pentecost marked the beginning of the church.
3. It brought a special and different power and courage with it which gave the apostles great boldness to preach.
4. The Pentecost marked the beginning of aggressive evangelism which is still in progress to day.

EVALUATION

1. Give an account of the receipt of the Holy Spirit by the disciples on the day of Pentecost.
2. What are the significances of Pentecost?

PETER'S SERMON AND THE CONVERSION

The people that came to Jerusalem as at that time were on pilgrimage. The sound of the Holy Spirit attracted them. Some of them accused the apostles of drunkenness as they heard the apostles speak many languages. Before long, a large crowd had gathered. Peter used that opportunity to preach the gospel of salvation of Christ. He explained to them that what they were experiencing was the fulfillment of Joel's prophecy concerning the coming of the Spirit on all people in the last days.

Peter told them that...
